

RIVIAN

Launch your career

The Rivian Technical Trades Program provides an opportunity for individuals to launch their careers as electric vehicle automotive technicians.

This course builds a foundation on electric vehicle technologies through engaging classroom instruction, hands-on training, and real-world experience at Rivian Service Centers. Graduates who successfully complete the course will be offered full time employment at a Rivian Service Center.

Requirements

- Willingness to relocate
- Travel to service centers
- High school diploma or GED
- At least 18 years of age
- Automotive or similar skills preferred

Pay & Benefits

- Paid for class time and working hours at service centers
- Minimum 40 hours/week combined
- Full medical benefits are offered

Taking applications now