Part and Line Number: Part I Line 1

Our organization, VTEC (Veteran Technical Education Center), provides accelerated, hands-on training programs in technical fields such as plumbing, electrical, HVAC, renewable energy, and emerging technologies. We focus on specialized job placement, ensuring that participants transition directly into high-demand careers upon completion. By combining skills training with guaranteed employment opportunities, we empower military personnel, veterans, and their families to achieve meaningful, sustainable careers while supporting workforce development initiatives nationally and internationally.

Part and Line Number: Part VI, Section A, Line 8(b)

The organization maintains contemporaneous written documentation of all meetings and official actions of its governing body and any committees authorized to act on its behalf. Minutes are prepared for each board and committee meeting and include the date, time, attendees, matters discussed, decisions made, and any votes taken. Draft minutes are reviewed and formally approved at subsequent meetings and retained as part of the organization's permanent records. For actions taken without a meeting,

Conflict of Interest Monitoring and Enforcement Practices Our organization maintains a formal Conflict of Interest Policy designed to ensure transparency, accountability, and the protection of the organization's mission and assets. 1. Annual Disclosure Requirements All board members, officers, key employees, and individuals with decision-making authority are required to complete an annual written conflict of interest disclosure statement. Individuals must also disclose any potential conflicts as they arise throughout the year. 2. Pre-Transaction Review Process Before entering into any significant transaction, contract, or financial arrangement, leadership conducts a review to identify any potential financial or personal interests involving board members, officers, employees, or related parties. If a potential conflict is identified: The interested individual must fully disclose the material facts. The individual must recuse themselves from discussions and voting.
